

I know the lands of which my mother died seized and possessed and which, as I have said, are described in "Exhibits 1 and 2;" one tract containing nearly 34 acres and another tract containing nearly 2 acres, or a total of nearly 36 acres of land, situated in Woodville District in Frederick County, Maryland. <sup>land 1 acre 11/2 sold by her</sup> I suppose the land is worth about $50.00 an acre, or about $1800.00. The said property or real estate cannot be divided among the parties interested therein, without loss and injury thereto, and the only way to make a division of these interests is by sale and a division of the proceeds.

To the General Interrogatory:

That is all.

Helzie M. Bear

Mr. David E. Klein, a witness of law age, produced on the part of the Plaintiffs, being duly affirmed and examined viva voce, deposes and says as follows:

My name is David E. Klein, my age is 61 years and I reside in Woodville District, Frederick County, Maryland. I know all the parties to this cause. I knew Hannah M. Bear and her husband, Christian Bear. Hannah Bear died in Frederick County on the 12th day of April, 1915, and her husband died, I am informed, on June 10th, 1924, at Frederick County. When Hannah M. Bear died she left the following children: Helzie M. Bear, married to Chorazine B. Bear; Charles C. Bear, married to Louise C. Bear; Harvey A. Bear, married to Julia Bear, Ernest T. Bear, married to Nina B. Bear, and Jesse D. Bear, married to one Della May Bear. These children were all adults. Since the death of Mrs. Hannah M. Bear, Jesse D. Bear died May 20th, 1917, and left two children, who are now living with their
